BARTON TAKES TWO

Barton Evens Up with Orleans by Taking Two Games Last Week. Tie Game Will Be Played Off at the Fair Tuesday

Orleans's streak of winning luck against Barton broke last week and broke badly when Barton won two games by wide margins. This makes two games that each have won of the series of five games. The tie will be played off at the fair Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock.

The game played here Wednesday afternoon was close and exciting up to the seventh when Orleans blew up. Until the seventh the score stood three to one in favor of Orleans but opportune hitting continued with bad errors on the part of Orleans let three Barton men across the plate in the seventh and four in the eighth, while Orleans did not score again. One feature of the game was that every man on the Barton team got a hit. Following is the score.

BARTONS WANTED TO PLAY.

The following is from the Barre Times:

Regarding the reported inability of the manager of the Barton baseball team to arrange games with one of the Barre teams, Frank Colombo, manager of the I. A. C., writes as follows:

"Under date of June 12, I challenged them for the championship of the state and offered to play one game in each place. Their reply of June 12 was that they would arrange games with me later. On June 19, I again offered to go to Barton and play two games for same guarantee that we would give them to come here for only one game, and a week day at that, but to no avail.

"On June 24 I again offered to play them two games during the fair at Barton, for a return game here September 9, but they would not come here on any Saturday.

"On July 10, the manager of the Barton team wrote me that they would disband after the fair and could only offer me Saturday, August 5 or 12 at Barton. Both these dates I had already filled with Hardwick and Murray Hills of New York, but cancelled my date of August 12 and 'phoned them that I would go up

NEXT WEEK THE FAIR

Proposed Aeroplane and Passenger Flights Attracting Great Attention. Big Crowds Expected.

Nothing but bad weather can prevent an old-time crowd at the Orleans County fair next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. James V. Martin's proposed biplane flights and passenger trips are attracting a great deal of attention and word from every direction indicates that record crowds will visit Barton next week Wednesday and Thursday: nothing but the worst of bad weather will keep people away. Mr. Martin is attracting considerable attention in his recent work in the west, and is frequently mentioned in the Boston papers as one of the prominent aviators expected at the Harvard meet the last of the month. That there will be no disappointment with the flying seems one thing certain.

Entries in the various live stock departments are now coming in and there promises to be an excellent showing in all departments. The races also promise to be good and the stage attractions have probably never before been excelled in quality. The nimble troupe of Japanese are winning a reputation wherever they perform for juggling, wire walking and special Japanese stunts that only the Japanese are capable of doing. Marion and Zoar, the aerial artists and comedians also will appear.

Special trains will be run from the south on Wednesday and Thursday and the 1.09 p. m. south air line will stop all three days of the fair at Orleans for the accommodation of the public. The association is doing everything within its power to make the fair a success.

This is the first fair to be held in the state this fall and with the first passenger flights ever held in the state, and other first-class attractions and exhibits the Orleans County fair certainly deserves the large patronage it will receive. Remember the admission is only 25 cents. See the page advertisement on the fair in this issue.

Twenty-five out of town race horses have already arrived at Roaring Brook Park stables for the fair races and will train here for a week. Thirty more are expected. This with the local horses of Lang, and Harding assures an exceptionally large number of track horses, and the best racing seen on the Barton track in years is predicted by horsemen who have followed the work of the horses entered.

Late advices from Mr. Martin show that he has been very successful in his work at the great Chicago meet where he now is, winning several prizes. He will arrive here with his machine on Tuesday and will set his machine up Tuesday afternoon and hopes to make a flight Tuesday as well as those on Wednesday and Thursday. He says no one will be disappointed with his flying.

Special trains have been arranged for. The first of these will run on Monday, September 4, from Lowell, Mass. Others will be run during the week. This will give to the many residents of these parts an opportunity to visit their friends in this section of the Province of Quebec, and at the same time attend the fair.

Frontier Electric Company Organize.

The North Troy Palladium has the following regarding the organization of a new electric company. "The Frontier Electric Company was organized at the Frontier house Wednesday afternoon with the directorate as follows: Col. C. S. Emery of Newport, Hon. J. L. Lewis, M. J. Blair, A. H. Butterfield of North Troy, A. H. Bailey, Nelson Bailey of Wells River, and Everett Forsyth of Derby Line. The directors subsequently chose the following officers: President, Col. C. S. Emery; vice president, Hon. J. L. Lewis, M. J. Blair; clerk, A. H. Butterfield; treasurer and general manager, Everett Forsyth; auditor, A. A. Macomber.

"The capital stock of the company is $30,000, which will be issued in shares of $100 each par value. The Frontier Electric Company will construct a generating plant for the distribution of light, heat and power, at a point on Jay branch near the Dubois bridge, about two miles south of North Troy. Through general manager Forsyth the company has acquired by purchase, flowage, water and power rights along both sides of the stream for nearly a mile. The site of the dam is located on the rock gorge some thirty rods west of the Dubois bridge, and the dam will be constructed of solid re-enforced concrete. The spillway will rise approximately fifty feet from the bed of the stream, and the crest of the concrete work will be four feet higher, rising to a point nearly as high as the natural dike which will form a part of the dam on the southerly end. Water will be conveyed in twenty-eight hundred feet of four-foot steel penstock to the power house to be located in the rear and a little south of the George Horn farm. One hundred sixty-eight feet fall of water will be obtained for the pair of eighteen-inch draft tube turbine wheels. Competent engineers who have examined the watershed drained by Jay branch estimate the power to be developed at eight hundred horse power for ten hours per day and two hundred for the remainder of the day.

"The Frontier Electric Company has also purchased the dynamo and light system of the North Troy Electric Light and Power Company, which upon completion of its new plant will be connected with its own system. The wires of the Frontier Electric Company will be extended to nearby villages. Blue prints and specifications of the dam, pipe line and power house are already out and it is expected that work, which will begin in a few days, will be rapidly rushed to completion by December 1.

"It is the intention of manager Forsyth to put in the most modern and up-to-date electric plant in North-east New England.

"The Frontier Electric Company is an enterprise that holds great possibilities for the development of industries and manufacturing enterprises in North Troy and vicinity. It would be well for the business interests of this village to secure for new industries the use of nearly, if not all the current produced. The opportunity for business growth and development is at hand. Grasp it and hang on till you have landed something worth while."
